Prepare for the 2011 ADA/Historic Deerfield Antiques Show with an illuminating and entertaining afternoon of hands-on learning at Historic Deerfield. At 1 p.m., join President Philip Zea for a workshop titled “Deerfield Furniture,” with a dozen pieces of local case and seating furniture, dating from 1700 to 1820—many documented to manufacture and/or ownership in Deerfield.

At 3:30 p.m., Amanda Lange, Curatorial Department Chair and Curator of Historic Interiors, will lead another hands-on workshop titled “New England Silver,” featuring pieces of Historic Deerfield’s stellar collection, including objects made by Jacob Hurd, Paul Revere, and Jeremiah Dummer.

ADA/Historic Deerfield Antiques Show:
Due to Yom Kippur, please note that the ADA/Historic Deerfield Antiques Show will be held on Sunday, October 9 and Monday, October 10 at the Deerfield Academy Hockey Rink. Show admission: $12.00 (includes free admission to the Flynt Center of Early New England Life)

SPEAKERS:
Philip Zea is president of Historic Deerfield. Between 2001 and 2003, Mr. Zea worked as Vice President for Museums and Collections at the Society for the Preservation of New England Antiquities in Boston, and prior to that as Curator of Furniture at the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation in Williamsburg, Virginia.

Amanda Lange has curated the ceramics, glass, and metalware collections at Historic Deerfield for the past 16 years. She published Delftware at Historic Deerfield (2001) and Chinese Export Art at Historic Deerfield (2005), and is currently at work on a catalogue of the English creamware collection.
